

UPPER ROCKRIDGE CHARM

Built in 1926 this charming split level Tudor, with a traditional floor plan, is located in the desirable Upper Rockridge neighborhood. The spacious living room with high cove ceiling, a large picture window and an abundance of natural light could very well be the heart of the home. The formal dining room has a high cove ceiling and a beautiful period crystal chandelier. This room brings visions of festive Holiday dinners with family and friends. The eat-in kitchen has been remodeled with granite counter tops, Birch cabinets and stainless appliances. This is a wonderful place to call home!
